

Week 3

Forest School

This week in Forest School we went bug hunting. We used sheets to help us identify what we had found. We were very careful and put all the bugs back in their habitats.

In the afternoon we continued to care for the garden. We weeded some planters, watered the plants and swept all the paths. We then did some observational drawings of the plants and trees in the school garden.

