

Week 4

Forest School

This week in Forest School, we used our weather stones to help us think about different types of weather. We then discussed the seasons and what sort of weather we might have in each season. We drew pictures to match each season and then we made a pretend storm with our hands and feet!

